

St George's House Consultation

Thursday, 27 February 2014

Report of Consultation:

'Risk and Enterprise in Society' 60 pages email: SGHReport@campaignforadventure.org Speakers Sir Christopher Ball Chairman, The Achievement Trust Sir Digby Jones, Past Director General of the Confederation of British Industry Roger Orgill MBE, Director of the John Hunt Award Trust and Government Adviser on education in the outdoors Libby Purves, Writer, broadcaster and presenter on current affairs, education and adventure Participants Roy Amlot, Barrister, ex-chairman of the Bar Jonathan Ball, Project Founder, The Great Atlantic Way John Bateman, Chief Executive, UK Youth Julian Brazier TD, MP, Canterbury Tony Breslin, Chief Executive, The Citizenship Foundation Hilary Chittock, Head, guiding Support Services, Girlguiding UK Bryan Clover, Head of Services, Innovation and Development, Help the Aged Geoff Cooper, Head of Low Bank Ground Outdoor Education Centre Chris Dunning, Director of Youth Projects UK North, Rank Foundation Dr Bertie Everard, Chair, Development Training Employers Group, Institute for Outdoor Learning John Huskins, Education Consultant Prof Shirley Ali Khan, Education Director, Bulmer Foundation Brian Liversidge, Chief Executive, Brathay Hall Trust Graham Morris, Training and Advisory Support manager, The Citizenship Foundation Ken Ogilvie, Association of Heads of Outdoor Education Centres Roger Putnam OBE ex Chair NAOE, Outward Bound UK Prof Rajagopadan Sampatkumar, Secretary General, International Society for Human Values Hetan Shah, Programme Director, New Economics Forum Jeremy Stokes, Public Affairs, Outdoor Industries Association Randall Williams, Chair, English Outdoor Council Ian F. Lewis FRSA, Director, Campaign for Adventure, Clerk to All Party Group on Adventure